- (e) co-operate with any other person exercising a duty imposed by this Act or the regulations;
 - (f) ensure that:
 - (i) the employer's workers are trained in all matters that are necessary to protect their health, safety and welfare; and
 - (ii) all work at the place of employment is sufficiently and competently supervised;
 - (g) if the employer is required to designate an occupational health and safety representative for a place of employment, ensure that written records of meetings with the occupational health and safety representative are kept and are readily available at the place of employment;
 - (h) ensure, insofar as is reasonably practicable, that the activities of the employer's workers at a place of employment do not negatively affect the health, safety or welfare at work of the employer, other workers or any self-employed person at the place of employment; and
 - (i) comply with this Act and the regulations.

“General duties of supervisors

3.1 Every supervisor shall:

- (a) ensure, insofar as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety at work of all workers who work under the supervisor's direct supervision and direction;
- (b) ensure that workers under the supervisor's direction comply with this Act and the regulations;
- (c) ensure, insofar as is reasonably practicable, that all workers under the supervisor's direct oversight and direction are not exposed to harassment at the place of employment;
- (d) co-operate with any other person exercising a duty imposed by this Act or the regulations; and
- (e) comply with this Act and the regulations”.

New section 6.1

5 The following section is added after section 6:

“General duties of prime contractors at certain multiple-employer worksites

6.1(1) In this section and section 44:

- (a) ‘designated activities’ means prescribed activities or operations;
- (b) ‘designated supervisor’ means a supervisor who is designated by an employer pursuant to subsection (6).

(2) Every worksite must have a prime contractor if workers of two or more employers or self-employed persons are engaged on the worksite at the same time in one or more designated activities.

- (3) If a worksite is required by subsection (2) to have a prime contractor, the prime contractor is:
- (a) the contractor, employer or other person who enters into a written agreement with the owner of the worksite to be the prime contractor; or
 - (b) if no agreement mentioned in clause (a) has been made or is in force, the owner of the worksite.
- (4) The prime contractor at a worksite that is required to have a prime contractor pursuant to subsection (2) shall:
- (a) ensure that the names and method of contacting the prime contractor and the individual identified pursuant to clause (d) are posted at a conspicuous location at the worksite;
 - (b) ensure that all activities at the worksite that may affect the health and safety of workers or self-employed persons are coordinated;
 - (c) ensure, insofar as is reasonably practicable, that all employers and self-employed persons have adequate and appropriate policies, procedures, safe work practices, equipment, competent workers and information to ensure that:
 - (i) the employers and the self-employed persons comply with this Act and the regulations;
 - (ii) the activities of the employers and the self-employed persons or the activities of their workers do not jeopardize the health and safety of a worker or self-employed person at the worksite; and
 - (iii) the employers and the self-employed persons and their workers comply with any health and safety related policies and procedures implemented by the prime contractor;
 - (d) identify a competent person to oversee and direct, on behalf of the prime contractor, the activities of employers and self-employed persons at the worksite;
 - (e) prepare a written plan that:
 - (i) addresses how the requirements imposed by clauses (b) and (c) are being met;
 - (ii) sets out the name of and method of contacting the individual identified pursuant to clause (d);
 - (iii) identifies the supervisors for the worksite designated by employers pursuant to clause (6)(a); and
 - (iv) addresses other prescribed matters;
 - (f) deliver a copy of the written plan mentioned in clause (e) to all employers and self-employed persons before they or their workers commence working at the worksite;
 - (g) co-operate with any other person exercising a duty imposed by this Act or the regulations; and
 - (h) comply with this Act and the regulations.

- (5) Every employer, self-employed person and supplier at a worksite required to have a prime contractor pursuant to subsection (2) shall co-operate and comply with any reasonable direction issued by the prime contractor or the individual identified pursuant to clause (4)(d) in carrying out their duties pursuant to this section.
- (6) Every employer of workers at a worksite that is required to have a prime contractor pursuant to subsection (2) shall:
- (a) designate a competent person as the designated supervisor for the employer's workers at the worksite; and
 - (b) give the prime contractor the name of the person designated as the designated supervisor pursuant to clause (a).
- (7) Subject to the regulations, every designated supervisor shall fulfil the duties imposed on supervisors by this Act and the regulations and shall fulfil any other prescribed duties.
- (8) Nothing in this section is to be interpreted as limiting or replacing the duties or requirements imposed by this Act and the regulations on an employer or any other person”.

New section 86 Section 8 is repealed and the following substituted:*“General duties of suppliers*8 Every supplier shall:

- (a) ensure, insofar as is reasonably practicable, that any substance or any plant supplied by the supplier to any owner, contractor, employer, worker or self-employed person for use in or at a place of employment:
 - (i) is safe when used in accordance with the instructions provided by the supplier; and
 - (ii) complies with the requirements of this Act and the regulations;
- (b) in the prescribed circumstances:
 - (i) provide written instruction respecting the safe use of equipment that is supplied by the supplier to be used in or at a place of employment by workers; and
 - (ii) provide notice when equipment supplied does not or will not likely comply with a prescribed standard when used at a place of employment by workers;
- (c) if the supplier has responsibility under a leasing agreement to maintain equipment, maintain that equipment in a safe condition and in compliance with the regulations and any applicable orders issued pursuant to the regulations; and
- (d) comply with this Act and the regulations”.

Section 9 amended

Compliance Undertakings and Notices of Contravention”.

New section 3016 Section 30 is repealed and the following substituted:*“Compliance undertakings and notices of contravention

30(1) An occupational health officer shall act pursuant to subsection (2) if the occupational health officer is of the opinion that a person:

- (a) is contravening any provision of this Act or the regulations; or
 - (b) has contravened any provision of this Act or the regulations in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or will be repeated.
- (2) In the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), the occupational health officer shall:
- (a) subject to subsection (4), require the person to enter into a compliance undertaking; or
 - (b) serve a notice of contravention on the person.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2):
- (a) a compliance undertaking must:
 - (i) be in writing and in the form approved by the director;
 - (ii) contain a description by the occupational health officer of the action to be undertaken by the person; and
 - (iii) contain the person’s signed commitment to:
 - (A) comply or improve compliance with the contravened provision of this Act or regulation within a period specified by the occupational health officer in the compliance undertaking; and
 - (B) provide a progress report in accordance with section 35; and
 - (b) a notice of contravention must:
 - (i) cite the contravened provision of this Act or the regulations;
 - (ii) state the reasons for the occupational health officer’s opinion; and
 - (iii) require the person to remedy the contravention within a period specified by the occupational health officer in the notice of contravention.

(4) An occupational health officer shall not allow a person to enter into a compliance undertaking if a provision of this Act or the regulations requires that a notice of contravention be issued.

(5) An occupational health officer may serve a notice of contravention on a person notwithstanding that the person has entered into a compliance undertaking if:

(a) the person fails to comply with the compliance undertaking or to provide a progress report in compliance with section 35; or

(b) in the opinion of the occupational health officer, it is necessary to do so to prevent a risk to the health and safety of a worker or it is otherwise in the public interest”.

New sections 34 and 35

17 Sections 34 and 35 and repealed and the following substituted:

“Copy of compliance undertaking or notice of contravention

34 If a person enters into a compliance undertaking or an occupational health officer serves a notice of contravention on any person, the occupational health officer shall:

(a) if there is an occupational health committee or an occupational health and safety representative at the place of employment with respect to which the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention applies, provide the occupational health committee or the occupational health and safety representative with a copy of the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention; or

(b) if there is no occupational health committee or occupational health and safety representative at the place of employment with respect to which the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention applies, post a copy of the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention in a conspicuous location at that place of employment.

“Progress report

35 Within five business days after the end of the period specified in a compliance undertaking or notice of contravention within which a contravention is to be remedied, the person who entered into the compliance undertaking or on whom the notice of contravention is served:

(a) shall:

(i) provide the occupational health committee or occupational health and safety representative at the place of employment with respect to which the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention applies with a written report of the progress that has been made towards remedying each contravention of the Act or regulations that is stated in the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention; or

(ii) if no occupational health committee or occupational health and safety representative exists at the place of employment with respect to which the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention applies, post in a conspicuous location at the place of employment a written report of the progress that has been made towards remedying each contravention of the Act or regulations that is stated in the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention; and

(b) shall provide the occupational health officer who received the compliance undertaking or who issued the notice of contravention with a written report of the progress that has been made towards remedying each contravention of the Act or regulations that is stated in the compliance undertaking or notice of contravention”.

New sections 56 to 56.423 Sections 56 and 56.1 are repealed and the following substituted:*“Appeals to Court of Queen’s Bench

56(1) A person who is directly affected by a decision of an adjudicator may appeal to the Court of Queen’s Bench:

- (a) a decision of an adjudicator on a question of law or a question of jurisdiction; and
 - (b) a decision of an adjudicator in relation to section 33.
- (2) A person who is directly affected by a decision of an adjudicator and who wishes to appeal that decision shall file the appeal within 15 business days after the date of service of the decision of the adjudicator.
- (3) A notice of appeal is to be served on:
- (a) the director; and
 - (b) the other parties to the proceedings before the adjudicator.
- (4) When a notice of appeal is served on the director or if the director makes the appeal, the director shall immediately file the record of the proceedings before the adjudicator in the office of the local registrar of the Court of Queen’s Bench at the judicial centre nearest to where the adjudicator’s decision or order was made.
- (5) The record of appeal is to consist of:
- (a) any written decision of an occupational health officer respecting the matter that is the subject of the appeal;
 - (b) the written decision of the director respecting the matter that is the subject of the appeal;
 - (c) the notice of appeal filed with the director pursuant to section 50;
 - (d) the written decision of the adjudicator; and
 - (e) the notice of appeal commencing the appeal.
- (6) If an appeal is taken pursuant to this section, a judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench may:
- (a) affirm or reverse the decision or order of the adjudicator; or
 - (b) remit the matter back to the adjudicator for amendment of the adjudicator’s decision or order.

“Appeal to Court of Appeal

56.1(1) With leave of a judge of the Court of Appeal, an appeal may be made to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the Court of Queen’s Bench pursuant to section 56 on a question of law or jurisdiction.

- (2) A person, including the director, wishing to make an appeal shall apply for leave to appeal within 15 business days after the date of service of the decision of the Court of Queen’s Bench.

“Director entitled to be heard

56.2(1) Subject to subsection (2), the director is a party to any appeal taken pursuant to section 50, 51, 56, 56.1 or 56.3 and is entitled to be heard, by counsel or otherwise, on the appeal.

(2) The director’s role in any appeal mentioned in subsection (1) is to be limited to matters concerning the administration or interpretation of this Act.

“Appeals to special adjudicator—re harassment

56.3(1) A person who is directly affected by a decision of an occupational health officer respecting any matter involving harassment may appeal the decision to a special adjudicator.

(2) Subsections 50(2) and (3) and sections 52 to 56.2 and 56.4 apply, with any necessary modification, to any appeals to a special adjudicator, any hearings conducted by a special adjudicator, any decisions of a special adjudicator and any appeals of a decision of a special adjudicator.

(3) On receipt of a notice of appeal pursuant to this Part from the director, a special adjudicator:

(a) shall make every effort that the special adjudicator considers reasonable to meet with the parties affected by the occupational health officer’s decision that is being appealed with a view to encouraging a settlement of the matter that is the subject of the occupational health officer’s decision; and

(b) with the agreement of the parties, may use mediation, conciliation or other procedures to encourage a settlement of the matter mentioned in clause (a) at any time before or during a hearing pursuant to this section.

(4) Unless the matter that is the subject of the occupational health officer’s decision has been settled, a special adjudicator shall render a decision in accordance with this Part within one year after the date the director received the notice of appeal.

“Service

56.4(1) Unless otherwise provided in this Act, any document or notice required by this Act or the regulations to be served on any person other than the director may be served:

(a) by personal service on the person by delivery of a copy of the document or notice;

(b) by sending a copy of the document or notice by registered or certified mail to the last known address of the person or to the address of the person as shown in the records of the ministry;

(c) by personal service at a place of employment on the person’s manager, agent, representative, officer, director or supervisor;

(d) by any of the methods set out in The Queen’s Bench Rules for the service of documents; or

(e) by delivering a copy to the person’s lawyer if the lawyer accepts service by endorsing his or her name on a true copy of the document or notice indicating that he or she is the lawyer for that person.

- (2) A document or notice to be given to or served on the division or the director must be given or served in the prescribed manner.
- (3) A document or notice served by registered mail or certified mail is deemed to have been received on the fifth business day following the day of its mailing, unless the person to whom it was mailed establishes that, through no fault of that person, the person did not receive the document or notice.
- (4) If the director is unable to effect service by the methods set out in subsection (1) after making reasonable efforts to do so, the director may serve a document or notice by publishing it in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the person was last known to reside.
- (5) Any person who is required to serve a document or notice pursuant to this Act or the regulations may apply, ex parte, to a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench for an order for substituted service or for an order dispensing with service.
- (6) On an application pursuant to subsection (5), a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench may make an order for substituted service by any means that the judge considers appropriate or an order dispensing with service, if the judge is satisfied that:
- (a) prompt service of the document or notice cannot be effected;
 - (b) the whereabouts of the person to be served cannot be determined; or
 - (c) the person to be served is evading service".
