“Zero tolerance drugs

146.2(1) A peace officer may make a demand pursuant to section 149 if the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver drove a motor vehicle having any drugs in his or her body.

(2) A peace officer shall do the things set out in subsections (3) and (9) if, following a demand pursuant to section 149:

(a) the driver fails or refuses to undergo a field sobriety test;

(b) the driver fails or refuses to undergo an evaluation by a person who is qualified as a certified drug recognition evaluator pursuant to the Criminal Code;

(c) the driver fails to provide a sample of his or her bodily substance; or

(d) a sample of the driver’s bodily substance, analysed by means of an approved screening device, indicates he or she has consumed drugs.

(3) In the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2), the peace officer shall immediately:

- (a) suspend the driver from driving a motor vehicle;
- (b) if the driver holds a valid driver's licence or any other permit authorizing the driver to drive a motor vehicle, require the driver to immediately surrender his or her driver's licence or permit;
- (c) cause the motor vehicle the driver is driving to be immobilized or impounded; and
- (d) issue and serve on the driver a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment.

(4) A notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment served on a driver pursuant to this section:

- (a) are effective immediately;
- (b) are effective notwithstanding that the peace officer is unable for any reason to take possession of the driver's licence or permit; and
- (c) prohibit the driver from applying for or holding a driver's licence during the period of suspension set out in this section.

(5) If a driver is served with a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment pursuant to this section:

- (a) subject to subsection (8), the driver is suspended from driving a motor vehicle:
 - (i) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 3 consecutive days;
 - (ii) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 21 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 90 consecutive days; and
- (b) the motor vehicle the driver was driving at the time he or she was served with the notice of immobilization or impoundment is, on service of the notice, immediately immobilized or impounded:
 - (i) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 3 consecutive days;
 - (ii) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 7 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 14 consecutive days.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), if a driver is served with a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment pursuant to this section and the driver was transporting a person under the age of 16 years:

- (a) the driver is suspended from driving a motor vehicle:
 - (i) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 7 consecutive days;
 - (ii) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 30 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 120 consecutive days; and
- (b) the motor vehicle the driver was driving at the time he or she was served with the notice of immobilization or impoundment is, on service of the notice, immediately immobilized or impounded:
 - (i) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 7 consecutive days;
 - (ii) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 30 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 60 consecutive days.

(7) A driver shall, within 120 days after the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension pursuant to this section:

- (a) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, participate in any prescribed program required by the administrator;
- (b) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, participate in any prescribed program required by the administrator; or
- (c) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, complete an education or recovery program recommended by an addictions counsellor.

(8) If a driver who is required to complete a program pursuant to subsection (7) fails to do so within the 120-day period mentioned in that subsection and the driver's licence of the driver has been reinstated by the administrator, the administrator shall suspend the driver from driving a motor vehicle until he or she completes the program.

(9) If a peace officer suspends the driver's licence of a driver pursuant to this section, the peace officer shall:

- (a) keep a written record of the driver's licence suspended by the peace officer;
- (b) provide the driver whose driver's licence is suspended with a written notice in accordance with section 155.1 of the time from which the suspension takes effect;
- (c) if the driver surrenders his or her driver's licence, give the driver a receipt for the driver's licence; and
- (d) promptly send the driver's licence of the driver to the administrator.

(10) This section applies, with any necessary modification, to a driver who is a non-resident”.

- (a) ‘approved instrument’ means an approved instrument as defined in section 254.01 of the Criminal Code;
- (b) ‘approved screening device’ means a prescribed device for analysing a sample of breath, bodily substance or blood”;

(b) by repealing subsection (2) and substituting the following:

“(2) A peace officer shall do the things set out in subsections (3) and (12) if:

- (a) the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe, based on an analysis of a sample of a driver's breath or blood by means of an approved instrument or an approved screening device, that a driver drove a motor vehicle while the venous blood of the driver exceeded 80 milligrams of alcohol per 100 millilitres of blood contrary to paragraph 253(1)(b) of the Criminal Code;
- (b) the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver drove or had the care and control of a motor vehicle while the driver's ability to operate the motor vehicle was impaired by alcohol or a drug contrary to paragraph 253(1)(a) of the Criminal Code;
- (c) the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver drove or had the care and control of a vehicle while the driver's blood drug concentration was equal to or exceeded the blood drug concentration contrary to paragraph 253(3)(a) or (b) of the Criminal Code;
- (d) the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver drove or had the care and control of a vehicle while the driver's blood alcohol concentration and blood drug concentration was equal to or exceeded the blood alcohol concentration and blood drug concentration in circumstances in which the alcohol and that drug are combined contrary to paragraph 253(3)(c) of the Criminal Code; or
- (e) the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver failed or refused, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a demand made pursuant to section 254 of the Criminal Code”;

(c) by repealing subsection (5) and substituting the following:

“(5) If, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2), a driver is served with a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment pursuant to this section and the driver is charged with an offence pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), paragraph 253(3)(a), (b) or (c), section 255 or subsection 254(5) of the Criminal Code:

- (a) the driver is suspended from driving a motor vehicle until:
 - (i) the prosecution of the offence has been stayed or withdrawn; or
 - (ii) the driver has been acquitted or convicted of the offence; and
- (b) the motor vehicle the driver was driving at the time he or she was served with the notice of suspension and notice of immobilization or impoundment is, on the service of the notices, immediately impounded or immobilized:
 - (i) if the driver is charged pursuant to subsection 254(5) or subsection 255(2)(2.1)(3), (3.1) or (3.2) of the Criminal Code, for a period of 60 consecutive days;
 - (ii) if the driver is charged pursuant paragraph 253(1)(a) of the Criminal Code, for a period of 30 consecutive days;
 - (iii) if the driver is charged pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(b) or paragraph 253(3)(c) of the Criminal Code and the venous blood of the driver is less than 160 milligrams of alcohol per 100 millilitres of blood, for a period of 30 consecutive days; or
 - (iv) if the driver is charged pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(b) or paragraph 253(3)(c) of the Criminal Code and the venous blood of the driver is equal to or exceeds 160 milligrams of alcohol per 100 millilitres of blood, for a period of 60 consecutive days”;

(d) by repealing subsection (7) and substituting the following:

“(7) Notwithstanding subsection (5), but subject to subsections (7.1) to (11), if a driver is convicted of an offence pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), paragraph 253(3)(c), subsection 254(5) or section 255 of the Criminal Code for an offence pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b) or paragraph 253(3)(c) of the Criminal Code, the driver is not eligible to have his or her licence reinstated unless he or she participates in an ignition interlock program pursuant to subsection (7.1)”; and

(e) by repealing subsection (7.1) and substituting the following:

“(7.1) Subject to subsections (8) and (10), a driver enrolled in a prescribed ignition interlock program shall not drive a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with a prescribed ignition interlock device for a period of:

(a) 1 year following the enrolment in the ignition interlock program if the driver has not previously been convicted of an offence pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), paragraph 253(3)(a), (b) or (c), subsection 254(5) or section 255 of the Criminal Code in the 10 years preceding the date of the conviction and:

(e) 10 years following the enrolment in the ignition interlock program if:

(i) the driver has previously been convicted of 2 or more offences pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), paragraph 253(3)(a), (b) or (c), subsection 254(5) or section 255 of the Criminal Code in the 10 years preceding the date of the conviction; and

(ii) the driver is convicted pursuant to paragraph 253(1)(a) or (b), paragraph 253(3)(c), subsection 254(5) or section 255 of the Criminal Code”.

(8) Section 149 is repealed and the following substituted:

“When breath sample or bodily substance sample may be required

149(1) If a peace officer reasonably suspects that a driver has either alcohol or drugs in his or her body, the peace officer, by demand made to the driver:

(a) may require the driver to provide one or more samples of his or her breath that, in the opinion of the person taking the samples, are necessary to enable a proper analysis to be made by any prescribed device and the driver shall accompany the peace officer for the purpose of enabling samples to be taken;

(b) may require the driver to provide one or more samples of his or her bodily substance that, in the opinion of the person taking the samples, are necessary to enable a proper analysis to be made by any prescribed device and the driver shall accompany the peace officer for the purpose of enabling samples to be taken;

(c) may require the driver to undergo a field sobriety test; or

(d) may require the driver undergo an evaluation by a certified drug recognition evaluator.

(2) A sample of breath or bodily substance may be taken by any prescribed person or member of a prescribed class of persons.

(3) A sample of breath or bodily substance may be analysed by any prescribed device when operated by a prescribed person or member of a prescribed class of persons”.

(9) Subsection 150(1) is amended:

(a) by striking out the portion preceding clause (a) and substituting the following:

“In this section and section 150.1 and 150.11.”; and

(b) in clause (a) by striking out “section 146, 146.1, 146.2, 148 or 150.1” and substituting “section 146, 146.1, 146.2, 148, 150.1 or 150.11”.

(10) Subsection 150.1(1) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(1) A peace officer may require a driver who is driving a motor vehicle to undergo a field sobriety test if the peace officer reasonably suspects that the driver has any alcohol in his or her body that causes the driver to be unable to safely drive a vehicle”.

(11) The following section is added after section 150.1:

“New driver zero tolerance—drugs

150.11(1) A peace officer may make a demand pursuant to section 149 if the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a driver drove a motor vehicle having any drugs in his or her body.

- (2) A peace officer shall do the things set out in subsections (3) and (9) if:
- (a) the driver fails or refuses to undergo a field sobriety test;
 - (b) the driver fails or refuses to undergo an evaluation by a certified drug recognition evaluator;
 - (c) the driver fails to provide a sample of his or her bodily substance; or
 - (d) a sample of the driver’s bodily substance, analysed by means of an approved screening device, indicates he or she has consumed drugs.
- (3) In the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2), the peace officer shall immediately:
- (a) suspend the driver from driving a motor vehicle;
 - (b) if the driver holds a valid driver’s licence or any other permit authorizing the driver to drive a motor vehicle, require the driver to immediately surrender his or her driver’s licence or permit;
 - (c) cause the motor vehicle the driver is driving to be immobilized or impounded; and
 - (d) issue and serve on the driver a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment.
- (4) A notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment served on a driver pursuant to this section:
- (a) are effective immediately;
 - (b) are effective notwithstanding that the peace officer is unable for any reason to take possession of the driver’s licence or permit; and
 - (c) prohibit the driver from applying for or holding a driver’s licence during the period of suspension set out in this section.
- (5) If a driver is served with a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment pursuant to this section:
- (a) subject to subsection (7), the driver is suspended from driving a motor vehicle:
 - (i) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 60 consecutive days;
 - (ii) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 120 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice of suspension, for a period of 18 consecutive months; and

(b) the motor vehicle the driver was driving at the time he or she was served with the notice of immobilization or impoundment is, on service of the notice, immediately immobilized or impounded:

(i) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 3 consecutive days;

(ii) if the driver has been subject to 1 previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 7 consecutive days; or

(iii) if the driver has been subject to 2 or more previous designated notices in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 14 consecutive days.

(6) Notwithstanding clause (5)(b), if a driver is served with a notice of suspension and a notice of immobilization or impoundment pursuant to this section and the driver was transporting a person under the age of 16 years, the motor vehicle the driver was driving at the time he or she was served with the notice of immobilization or impoundment is, on service of the notice, immediately immobilized or impounded:

(a) if the driver has not been subject to a previous designated notice in the 10 years preceding the date of the issuance of the notice, for a period of 7 consecutive days;
