

BILL

No. 123

An Act to amend The Election Act, 1996 and to make consequential amendments to certain other Acts

(Assented to)

HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Election Amendment Act, 2022.

SS 1996, c E-6.01 amended

2 The Election Act, 1996 is amended in the manner set forth in this Act.

Section 2 amended

3 Subsection 2(1) is amended:

(a) by repealing clause (f); and

(b) by adding the following clause after clause (s):

“(s.01) ‘financial agent’ means a financial agent that a candidate is required by this Act to appoint”.

Section 5 amended

4(1) Clause 5(1)(e) is amended by striking out “business managers” and substituting “financial agents”.

(2) The following subsection is added after subsection 5(6):

“(7) Notwithstanding any other Act, the Chief Electoral Officer may directly acquire goods and services from all or any of the following:

(a) the chief electoral officer appointed pursuant to the Canada Elections Act;

(b) a chief electoral officer appointed pursuant to an Act of any province or territory of Canada;

(c) any official or office responsible for the administration of municipal elections in any province or territory of Canada”.

ELECTION AMENDMENT ACT, 2022

New sections 5.3 to 5.6

5 The following sections are added after section 5.2:

“Directive re polling period

5.3(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the Chief Electoral Officer has received approval to do so from the Board of Internal Economy, the Chief Electoral Officer may direct for an election that the polling day and advance polling be combined into a polling period of 7 consecutive days.

(2) The polling period mentioned in subsection (1) may include one day of non-voting before the final polling day.

(3) If the Chief Electoral Officer issues a directive pursuant to subsection (1), the following rules apply with respect to the polling period, unless the Chief Electoral Officer’s directive otherwise provides:

- (a) anything required by this Act to occur before polling day must occur before the first day of the polling period;
- (b) anything required by this Act to take place on a specific date that is counted before, from or after the polling day shall be counted before, from or after the final day of the polling period;
- (c) anything required by this Act to take place before, on or after the close of voting on polling day or the close of a polling place must occur before, on or after the close of voting on the final day of the polling period;
- (d) anything that is prohibited by this Act from occurring on polling day is prohibited from occurring during the polling period;
- (e) anything that is prohibited by this Act from occurring during a specific time on polling day is prohibited during that specific time on each day of the polling period;
- (f) a reference to a polling day:
 - (i) in subsection 16(1) refers to the final day of the polling period;
 - (ii) in subsection 16(4.1) refers to the date on which the individual votes;
 - (iii) in subsection 42(2) refers to the polling period; and
 - (iv) in subsection 60(1) refers to any single day of the polling period;
- (g) the provisions of this Act respecting advance polls do not apply.

“Directive re voting modifications, electronic poll book, etc.

5.4(1) In accordance with this section but notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or the regulations, if the Chief Electoral Officer has received approval to do so from the Board of Internal Economy, the Chief Electoral Officer may direct for an election that voting at polling places be conducted in accordance with one or more of the modifications described in subsection (3).

ELECTION AMENDMENT ACT, 2022

- (2) If the Chief Electoral Officer issues a directive pursuant to subsection (1), the directive:
- (a) must apply to every polling place for each constituency that includes, in whole or in part, a city having a population of more than 20,000 inhabitants; and
 - (b) may apply in one or more polling places that are not described in clause (a).
- (3) The Chief Electoral Officer may do all or any of the following:
- (a) direct that the poll book used at a polling place be in an electronic format;
 - (b) subject to subsection (4):
 - (i) establish special election officer positions;
 - (ii) specify the duties, responsibilities and functions of special election officers;
 - (iii) specify the provisions of this Act or the regulations that are to apply to special election officers and the manner in which those provisions are to apply; and
 - (iv) direct the returning officer to appoint individuals to the special election officer positions instead of appointing individuals as election officers.
- (4) The following restrictions apply with respect to the appointment of an individual to a special election officer position:
- (a) the individual must be a voter who is:
 - (i) eligible for appointment in accordance with section 3;
 - (ii) in the opinion of the returning officer, competent and reliable; and
 - (iii) willing to act in the position;
 - (b) the individual must take an oath or make a declaration in the form required by the Chief Electoral Officer.
- (5) If the use of an electronic poll book is directed:
- (a) any requirement in this Act for the signature of a person in the poll book is satisfied by an electronic signature that is in, attached to or associated with any part of the poll book in electronic form;
 - (b) the furnishing of poll book entries after the closing of a polling place, as required by this Act, is satisfied by the provision of the entries in an electronic or printed format, at the option of the Chief Electoral Officer;

ELECTION AMENDMENT ACT, 2022

- (c) during voting, the Chief Electoral Officer shall have access at all times to the electronic poll book and, in the Chief Electoral Officer's discretion, may provide electronic updates of unique voter identification information or other information from the poll book entries to candidates and registered political parties by secure transmission from the poll book;
- (d) electronic forms may be completed and transmitted to the Chief Electoral Officer respecting voter registration at the polling place, with information supplied by the voter, if that registration is provided for by this Act;
- (e) after closing of the polling place, data from the electronic poll book must be securely stored and protected from loss, disclosure or unauthorized access, with any part of the poll book in a physical form being placed in a ballot box as required by this Act; and
- (f) the Chief Electoral Officer may adapt any other section of this Act and the regulations that the Chief Electoral Officer considers necessary or advisable to facilitate the use of the electronic poll book.

“Directive re voting location

5.5(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the Chief Electoral Officer issues a directive pursuant to section 5.4 directing for an election that the poll book used at a polling place be in an electronic format, the Chief Electoral Officer may further direct that the polling place is designated as a flexible polling place if the Chief Electoral Officer has received approval to do so from the Board of Internal Economy.

(2) If a polling place is designated as a flexible polling place pursuant to subsection (1), any voter who would be required to vote at that polling place pursuant to subsection 61(1) may vote at any other polling place that is designated as a flexible polling place.

“Directives - general

5.6(1) If the Chief Electoral Officer issues a directive pursuant to section 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5 for an election, the Chief Electoral Officer shall:

- (a) in the case of an election that is held in accordance with section 8.1 of The Legislative Assembly Act, 2007, at least 8 weeks before polling day:
 - (i) provide copies of the directive to each registered party; and
 - (ii) publish the directive on the Elections Saskatchewan website; or
- (b) in the case of a by-election or an election that is not held in accordance with section 8.1 of The Legislative Assembly Act, 2007, publish the directive on the Elections Saskatchewan website not later than 7 days after the writ is issued.

ELECTION AMENDMENT ACT, 2022

(2) If the Chief Electoral Officer issues a directive pursuant to section 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5 for an election, the Chief Electoral Officer shall include a report respecting the implementation and operation of the directive:

(a) in the report that the Chief Electoral Officer makes with respect to that election pursuant to section 286; or

(b) in the next annual report made pursuant to section 286.1.

(3) No election, and no proceeding taken pursuant to this Act or the regulations, is invalid by reason of a failure to comply with this Act or the regulations if that non-compliance is authorized by a directive issued pursuant to section 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5.

(4) No election, and no proceeding taken pursuant to this Act or the regulations, is invalid for an irregularity in complying with a directive issued pursuant to section 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5 if there has been substantial compliance with the directive”.

Section 18.2 amended

6 Subsection 18.2(4) is amended by striking out the portion preceding clause (a) and substituting the following:
