New sections 62 to 62.740 Section 62 is repealed and the following substituted:*“Minister may take action

62(1) The minister may do all or any of the things mentioned in subsection (2) if a person on whom an order is served pursuant to section 61 fails to comply with that order:

- (a) within the period specified in that order; or
- (b) if no period is specified in the order, within a reasonable period after the order was served.

(2) In the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), the minister may:

- (a) carry out the order; and
- (b) recover the costs and expenses incurred pursuant to clause (a) on behalf of the Crown as a debt due and recoverable by the Crown from the person who failed to comply with the order.

“Forest remediation order

62.1(1) If the minister is satisfied that activities being carried out on Crown resource land are being carried out in contravention of this Act, the regulations or the code and may cause, are causing or have caused damage to Crown resource lands or forest products on Crown resource lands, the minister may issue a forest remediation order against a person responsible directing that person to take any measures that the minister considers necessary.

(2) The minister shall cause the measures mentioned in subsection (3) to be set out in the forest remediation order.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the minister may, in a forest remediation order, require a person to whom the forest remediation order is directed to do all or any of the following:

- (a) investigate the situation;
- (b) lessen or prevent further damage to the Crown resource land or forest products;
- (c) remedy the damage;
- (d) restore the Crown resource land or forest products to a condition satisfactory to the minister;
- (e) maintain records on any matter relevant to the measures specified in the order;
- (f) report periodically to the minister or a person designated by the minister with respect to the measures specified in the order;

- (g) cease or suspend any activity for a period specified in the order or permanently;
 - (h) take any measure, in addition to or other than one described in clauses (a) to (g), that the minister considers necessary to:
 - (i) facilitate compliance with any forest remediation order; or
 - (ii) protect or restore the Crown resource lands or forest products.
- (4) A forest remediation order may specify:
- (a) the method or procedures to be used in carrying out the measures required by the order and the manner in which those methods or procedures are to be carried out; and
 - (b) the period within which any measure required by the order is to be commenced and the period within which the order or any portion of the order is to be complied with.

“Service of forest remediation order

62.2 The minister shall serve a copy of a forest remediation order on the person to whom the order is directed.

“Process for issuing and amending forest remediation orders

62.3(1) The minister may amend, alter or replace a forest remediation order, in whole or in part, if:

- (a) the person to whom the forest remediation order is issued fails to comply with the terms of the order; or
 - (b) the minister considers it appropriate to do so.
- (2) Before the minister issues a forest remediation order, or takes any action pursuant to subsection (1), the minister shall give to the person to whom the order is intended to be issued or whose order is to be amended, altered or replaced:
- (a) written notice of the minister’s intended action and the reasons for that intended action; and
 - (b) an opportunity to make written representations to the minister, within 30 days after the written notice mentioned in clause (a) is given, as to why the intended action should not be taken.
- (3) The minister is not required to give an oral hearing to any person to whom a notice has been given pursuant to subsection (2).
- (4) After considering the representations mentioned in clause (2)(b), the minister shall issue a written decision:
- (a) confirming the forest remediation order;
 - (b) amending, altering or replacing the forest remediation order; or
 - (c) revoking the forest remediation order.
- (5) The minister shall serve a copy of the decision made pursuant to this section on the person who made the representations as soon as is practicable after the decision is made.

“When minister may carry out forest remediation order

62.4(1) The minister may do all or any of the things mentioned in subsection (2) if a person on whom a forest remediation order is served fails to comply with that order:

- (a) within the period specified in that order; or
 - (b) if no period is specified in the order, within a reasonable period after the order was served.
- (2) In the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), the minister may:
- (a) carry out the order; and
 - (b) recover the costs and expenses incurred pursuant to clause (a) on behalf of the Crown as a debt due and recoverable by the Crown from the person who failed to comply with the forest remediation order.

“Recovery of minister’s costs—filing of certificate

62.5(1) If the minister undertakes any work for the purposes of this Part and incurs any costs and expenses as a result, the minister may file in the office of the local registrar of the Court of Queen’s Bench at the judicial centre nearest to the place where the work or the greatest portion of the work was done a certificate that is signed by the minister and that sets out:

- (a) the amount of the costs and expenses; and
 - (b) the person from whom the costs and expenses are recoverable.
- (2) If the minister files a certificate pursuant to subsection (1), the minister shall serve a copy of the certificate on the person from whom the certificate states the costs and expenses are recoverable.
- (3) A certificate filed pursuant to this section has the same force and effect as if it were a judgment obtained in the Court of Queen’s Bench for the recovery of a debt in the amount specified in the certificate, together with any reasonable costs and expenses with respect to its filing.
- (4) A person who has been served with a copy of a certificate pursuant to subsection (2) may, within 30 days after receiving the copy, make written representations to the minister requesting the minister to reconsider the amount of the costs and expenses.
- (5) After considering the representations mentioned in subsection (4), the minister may:
- (a) withdraw the certificate;
 - (b) vary the amount of the costs and expenses and, for that purpose, withdraw the certificate and file a new certificate with the new costs and expenses; or
 - (c) confirm the certificate.
- (6) The minister shall serve a copy of the decision made pursuant to this section on the person who made the representations as soon as is practicable after the decision is made.

“Appeals to Court of Queen’s Bench re forest remediation order or certificate

62.6(1) Any person aggrieved by a forest remediation order may appeal the order on a question of law to a judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench within 30 days after the date of service of the order.

- (2) The record of an appeal pursuant to subsection (1) consists of:
 - (a) the forest remediation order;
 - (b) the written representations made to the minister by the person named in the forest remediation order;
 - (c) the minister’s decision pursuant to subsection 62.3(4); and
 - (d) any other material that the Court of Queen’s Bench may require.
- (3) A person with respect to whom a certificate has been entered as a judgment pursuant to section 62.5 may appeal to a judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench only on the grounds that the costs and expenses set out in the certificate are not reasonable.
- (4) An appeal pursuant to subsection (3) must be made within:
 - (a) 30 days after the date of service of the certificate; or
 - (b) if the person has made representations to the minister pursuant to section 62.5, within 30 days after the minister has issued a decision.
- (5) On hearing an appeal pursuant to this section, the judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench may issue an order:
 - (a) confirming the forest remediation order or the entering of the certificate against the appellant, as the case may be;
 - (b) amending the forest remediation order or the certificate, as the case may be;
 - (c) quashing the forest remediation order or the certificate, as the case may be; or
 - (d) doing any other thing that the judge considers appropriate.
- (6) In an order issued pursuant to subsection (5), the judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench may specify the period within which the forest remediation order must be complied with.

“Appeal does not stay order or decision

62.7 An appeal pursuant to section 62.6 does not stay the operation of the forest remediation order or the certificate with respect to which the appeal is taken, unless a judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench orders otherwise”.

New section 6441 Section 64 is repealed and the following substituted:*“Appeal

64(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the minister, an officer or an inspector made pursuant to section 61 or 63.2 may appeal the order on a question of law or jurisdiction to a judge of the Court of Queen’s Bench within 30 days after the date of service of the order.

- (2) The record of an appeal pursuant to subsection (1) consists of:
 - (a) the order;
 - (b) the notice of motion commencing the appeal to the Court of Queen's Bench; and
 - (c) any other material that the Court of Queen's Bench may require.
- (3) On hearing an appeal pursuant to this section, the judge of the Court of Queen's Bench may issue an order:
 - (a) confirming the order;
 - (b) amending the order;
 - (c) quashing the order; or
 - (d) doing any other thing that the judge considers appropriate.
- (4) In an order issued pursuant to subsection (3), the judge of the Court of Queen's Bench may specify the period within which the order must be complied with.
- (5) Any person who is a party to an appeal and is aggrieved by a decision of the judge of the Court of Queen's Bench may appeal to the Court of Appeal at any time within 30 days after the date of the decision.
- (6) An appeal does not stay the operation of the order with respect to which the appeal is taken unless a judge of the court to which the appeal is taken orders otherwise".
