[The committee met at 09:44.]

The Chair: — Well good morning everyone. Welcome to the Human Services Committee meeting for November 28th. With us today we have MLA [Member of the Legislative Assembly] Muhammad Fiaz, MLA Nadine Wilson, MLA David Buckingham, MLA Eric Olauson, MLA Mark Docherty. On the opposition side, we have MLA Nicole Rancourt, and MLA Danielle Chartier.

So I would like to welcome everyone here this morning to hopefully the final meeting of the organ donor and transplant committee hearings. If someone would please that we move in camera for the final consideration of the report. Ms. Wilson. All in favour? Carried. This committee now moves in camera.

[The committee continued in camera from 09:46 until 09:53.]

The Chair: — Welcome back. The Committee on Human Services now reconvenes. Ms. Chartier.

Ms. Chartier: — Thank you, Mr. Chair. I'd like to move:

That pursuant to rule 136(2), the committee include a dissenting opinion in the second report of the Standing Committee on Human Services.

The Chair: — Ms. Chartier has moved:

That pursuant to rule 136(2), the committee include a dissenting opinion in the second report of the Standing Committee on Human Services.

Any discussion? Ms. Chartier.

Ms. Chartier: — Thank you, Mr. Chair. I'd just like to add, although I think we found some good consensus on a few of the recommendations, and that's noted in the dissenting opinion, that we would like to put forward I think we're missing a key opportunity to go from the bottom of the pack when it comes to organ donation, to really shine and do this really well to serve Saskatchewan citizens better.

So we've put forward eight additional recommendations that we think are part of a comprehensive organ donation and transplant program to save lives and be better for people here in Saskatchewan. So I think that the report stands on its own, and I know I'll have a copy. So I think that that's all that I'd like to say.

The Chair: — Okay. Thank you, Ms. Chartier. Any other comments? If not, the motion to include a dissenting opinion, in favour?

Some Hon. Members: — Agreed.

The Chair: — Carried.

The Chair: — Okay. Are there any motions that need to be moved? We've got the minority report. Now the adoption of the committee report and presenting to the Assembly. Ms. Wilson.

Hon. Ms. Wilson: — Thank you, Mr. Chair. I move:

That the second report of the Standing Committee on Human Services be adopted and presented to the Assembly.

Thank you.
