STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER
(Unparliamentary Language)

On the first point of order that was raised by the Government House Leader (Hon. Mr. Merriman) he alleged that the Member from Saskatoon Nutana (Ms. Sproule) used the phrase “making stuff up.” In response, the Opposition House Leader (Mr. McCall) indicated that there is no list of words or phrases that are not able to be said, rather a question around what motive is imputed with the phrase itself.

I have reviewed Hansard and on page 1124 the Member from Saskatoon Nutana stated, “they’re making it up as they go along.” Language similar to this has been found to be unparliamentary on numerous occasions in recent years.

This comment is part of what I think has been a steady erosion of decorum in recent days because of inflammatory and provocative comments hurled across the floor, both on and off the record. I was asked to review the record and in doing so I am sorry to say I found many instances of language that are of concern. On Thursday, I found that Members have accused each other of misrepresentations and mischaracterizations. Members have come very close to questioning the truthfulness or forthrightness of each other. On the very point the Government House Leader raised with respect to the language of the Member for Nutana in Question Period, a government Member accused an opposition Member of “they’re making this up in their pretended mind” during the Seventy-five minute debate.

Members, this has to stop. I am asking all Members to tone it down. The Member for Nutana isn’t the only Member who has contributed to the erosion in decorum, so on this occasion, I will not single her out to withdraw and apologize.

I would strongly urge Members to choose their words wisely as it is possible to effectively debate opposing positions, criticize statements made by Members as being contrary to the facts, or offer alternative versions of the facts. This can be done without calling into question the integrity of other Members.

Further, I also want to bring to the attention of all Members that in recent days Members are not following the rules of debate as outlined in Rule 51(c) which states that Members should be referred to by title, position, or constituency name. As an example, on Thursday, Members referred to other Members as “scandal plagued former Minister,” “the junior minister from Meadow Lake,” and “the old grim reaper.” Members should follow their own rules.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER (Relevance of Questions)

In this second point of order the Government House Leader (Hon. Mr. Merriman) raised the issue that questions asked during question period relating to Saskatchewan Party political donations should be found out of order. To support his point of order, the Government House Leader quoted Rule 20(2) which states:

Questions relating to any matter within the administrative competence of the government or on matters related to individual ministerial responsibility may be asked of a Minister of the Crown. Questions on issues not officially connected with the government, of a private nature, related to Board of Internal Economy, caucus, party, or political responsibilities are prohibited.

The Opposition House Leader (Mr. McCall) indicated that questions relating to electoral finance law are a matter of responsibility and competence for the Government of Saskatchewan and should be found in order.

I have considered the matter and reviewed the record. The exchange in question can be found on page 1125 of Hansard where the Member asked a question about political funding and in turn a response was given relating to political campaign expenses. Everything the Opposition House Leader said is true but the problem is the Member did not directly connect his question to electoral finance laws or any other matter within the government’s responsibility. The previous day the Member asked a similar question but on that occasion he did connect it to campaign finance laws.

I find that the question on Thursday was out of order. Members need to directly connect their question to the administration of the government in accordance with Rule 20(2). I find that the point of order is well taken.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER
(Unparliamentary Language)

The third point of order raised in the Assembly on November 3, 2016 was made by the Opposition House Leader (Mr. McCall). He stated “at the start of question period the Minister of the Economy, while the Premier was speaking, shouted over that, quote: ‘That’s an absolute lie.’” The Government House Leader (Hon. Mr. Merriman) responded that he did not think there was anything on the record and that he did not hear the comment.

When the Speaker must consult both the written and video record before a matter is addressed illustrates the difficulty caused by excessive noise and Members shouting across the floor. It also prevents me from dealing promptly with questionable language.

I have reviewed the Hansard and listened to the video recording. I did not find, nor did I hear the comments alleged to have been said by the Minister. Accordingly, I am not able to rule on this particular instance. However, I would like to clarify that unparliamentary remarks are out of order whether they are on the record or not.

This is consistent with the ruling made by Speaker Kowalsky on April 11, 2007 when he stated:

I wish to conclude by cautioning all Members to be temperate in their remarks, both while recognized to speak and while speaking from their seat. Many of these unofficial comments or heckles are intentionally provocative and inflammatory. The course of last Thursday’s debate is illustrative of how such remarks are unhelpful. The fact Hansard may not be able to attribute them to a particular Member does not make them acceptable language.
