BILL

No. 77

An Act respecting a By-election in the Constituency of Athabasca

(Assented to)

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Athabasca Constituency By-election Act.

Jim Lemaigre deemed elected

2 Notwithstanding any other Act, with respect to the by-election held in the constituency of Athabasca on February 15, 2022 for the purpose of electing a member of the Legislative Assembly, Jim Lemaigre is deemed to have been duly elected at that by-election.

Duties respecting election to be performed

3 All things and proceedings that are required by The Election Act, 1996, The Controverted Elections Act or any other Act to be done or taken with respect to the by-election described in section 2 are to be done or taken in the same manner that they would have been done or taken, and when done or taken have the same effect that they would have had, as if this Act had not been passed.

Powers and privileges preserved

4 All things and proceedings that are required by The Election Act, 1996, The Controverted Elections Act or any other Act that may be done or taken with respect to the by-election described in section 2 may be done or taken in the same manner that they might have been done or taken, and when done or taken have the same effect that they would have had, as if this Act had not been passed.

Consequences if Jim Lemaigre determined not to be duly elected

5 If, after all things or proceedings mentioned in section 3 have been done or taken or the time within which all things or proceedings mentioned in section 4 may be done or taken has expired, it appears that Jim Lemaigre was not duly elected:

(a) section 2 is repealed; and

(b) Jim Lemaigre ceases to be a member of the Legislative Assembly.

Coming into force

6 This Act comes into force on assent.
