[The committee met at 17:11.]

The Chair: — Good evening. Welcome everyone to our committee tonight. I'll introduce my members. For the opposition we have David Forbes. On government we have Delbert Kirsch, Paul Merriman, Greg Brkich, Randy Weekes, and Ken Cheveldayoff. We're here for the consideration of a draft committee report. Since the committee is discussing a substantive report pursuant to rule 135(1), I would ask a member to move a motion to move in camera.

Mr. Merriman moves. All those in favour?

Some Hon. Members: — Agreed.

The Chair: — Opposed? Carried.

[The committee continued in camera from 17:12 until 17:22.]

The Chair: — Welcome back to the Standing Committee on Privileges. I thank the members for appearing and the discussions today. I look for a motion to move the report that we just discussed. I'll recognize Ken Cheveldayoff.

Hon. Mr. Cheveldayoff: — Thank you, Mr. Chair. I move the motion. I move:

That the draft first report of the Standing Committee on Privileges be adopted and presented to the Assembly.

The Chair: — Ken Cheveldayoff has moved:

That the draft first report of the Standing Committee on Privileges be adopted and presented to the Assembly.

Is the committee ready for the question?

Some Hon. Members: — Question.

The Chair: — All those in favour say aye.

Some Hon. Members: — Aye.

The Chair: — All those against? Carried. So this report will be reported back to the Assembly tomorrow.

I will now call . . . If there's no other business, I'll ask for a motion of adjournment. Mr. Paul Merriman has moved the motion for adjournment. All those in favour?

Some Hon. Members: — Agreed.

The Chair: — Carried.

[The committee adjourned at 17:24.]
