Ms. Lorje: — Requesting leave to introduce guests, Mr. Speaker.

Leave granted.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Ms. Lorje: — Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Earlier this afternoon, all members of the legislature were very privileged to be invited to a reception hosted by the SCIC, the Saskatchewan Council for International Co-operation. And joining us in the gallery, in your gallery this evening, Mr. Speaker, are four people who were part of that reception and who had wonderful displays to really remind us about what happens in most of the world. These are people who deal with people on an ongoing basis in countries where freedom of speech is a dream — let alone freedom of bell ringing as we're witnessing.

So I would like to, with leave, introduce Major Wally Simpson, and Major Ron Trickett from the Salvation Army. They were telling me about some of their projects, Mr. Speaker, and in particular they have received matching grants through SCIC for a women's training centre in Haiti and a mobile health clinic in Ecuador.

As well with the representatives from the Salvation Army are two gentlemen. Mr. John Derbowka, is on the board of SCIC and also on the Canadian board of the Canadian Hunger Foundation. And as well Mr. Jim Zepp is with the Canadian Hunger Foundation. They tell me that they have at least a dozen projects going at any one time in places like Africa, India, Southeast Asia and Central America.

I congratulate all of the people who are involved in SCIC, and I thank them very much for their generous gift of time and education for all of us here in the legislature. I ask everyone to join me in welcoming them.

Hon. Members: Hear, hear!

(1915)

Mr. Whitmore: — With leave, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to introduce guests.

Leave granted.

Mr. Whitmore: — Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I too would also like to welcome this evening Mr. John Derbowka. Mr. Derbowka has been involved in the co-op movement for many years. And before I was involved in political life, I was involved many years in the co-operative movement. I would certainly like to welcome John here tonight too.

Hon. Members: Hear, hear!
