INTRODUCTION OF BILLS / DÉPÔT DE PROJETS DE LOI

The following Bills were received, read the first time, and ordered to be read a second time at the next sitting:

Les projets de loi suivants sont reçus, lus une première fois, et la deuxième lecture en est fixée à la prochaine séance:

Bill No. 43 – The Payday Loans Act

(Hon. Mr. Quennell)

Bill No. 44 – The Class Actions Amendment Act, 2007

Projet de loi n° 44 – Loi de 2007 modifiant la Loi sur les recours collectifs

(Hon. Mr. / L'hon. M. Quennell)

Pursuant to a Sessional Order adopted by the Assembly on October 30, 2006, the Hon. Mr. Quennell requested the designation of Bill No. 43 – The Payday Loans Act – as a Specified Bill subject to Rules 31 to 33. Accordingly, the Bill was designated as a Specified Bill.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

(Question of Privilege – Carriere Settlement Agreement)

Earlier today, the Opposition House Leader (Mr. Gantefoer) gave notice of a question of privilege. The notice concerned a statement made by the Minister responsible for the Public Service Commission (Hon. Ms. Atkinson) regarding a settlement agreement and its impact on Members of this Assembly.

Before making my ruling, I wish to remind Members that questions of privilege should be raised at the earliest opportunity. The statement at issue was made on Wednesday, March 7th and raised with my office only this morning. Nevertheless, the Speaker has the discretion to waive this requirement and I do so in this instance.

The crux of the case is whether the Government's recent out of court settlement with Murdoch Carriere in any way impedes the ability of Members to carry out their duties.

It is the Opposition House Leader's contention that the government's decision to withhold the details of the settlement agreement constitutes a breach of Members' privileges.

He then cites in support of this view the Minister's statement that the agreement affects "all members of the legislature ... including the opposition" and page 193 of Maingot's Parliamentary Privilege in Canada (2nd ed.).

I find that the citation from Maingot is not relevant to the circumstances at hand. The context of the citation refers to situations where the Assembly has issued an order that has not been abided by. For example, if the Assembly had issued an order for the production of a document and the custodian of that document refused to produce it, then a contempt of the Assembly's privileges might have occurred. In the current case, the Assembly has not issued an order for the production of the settlement agreement, nor has a Minister refused to comply.

In addressing the circumstances at hand, I find that the refusal to provide details of the settlement agreement do not obstruct Members in performing their parliamentary duties. Members continue to be protected by privilege while participating in parliamentary proceedings. The ability of Members to speak, debate, or ask questions in this Chamber or the Legislative Committees is in no way impeded by virtue of the settlement agreement having been reached. Indeed, it is not uncommon for Ministers to decline to divulge details of matters on the grounds of sub judice, commercial sensitivity or which are of a confidential nature, such as personnel matters.

I therefore find that a prima facie case of privilege has not been established.

COMMONWEALTH DAY MESSAGE

The Speaker, before Orders of the Day, read the Commonwealth Day Message of Her Majesty the Queen.
