Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 545, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: How much of the payment to Murdoch Carriere was for general damages?

Answer:

The payment was negotiated as a global settlement of all legal proceedings without attributing values to the specific claims advanced by Murdoch Carriere, including general damages, past loss of income, pay in lieu of notice, loss of benefits, damages for defamation, misfeasance in public office, negligence and disclosure of personal information, aggravated and punitive damages, pre-judgment interest and costs.

For reasons related to the payment of tax, Mr. Carriere wanted the settlement agreement to stipulate that no portion of the payment was to be attributed to pay in lieu of notice. It was the government's position that this may not fairly represent the settlement and may mislead the Canada Revenue Agency. Since this was a matter that would ultimately be determined by the Canada Revenue Agency and did not bear on the settlement itself, the parties agreed to simply state their respective positions.

Therefore, the settlement agreement records Mr. Carriere's position that the amount does not include pay in lieu of notice, and the government's position is recorded as follows: "Settlement Amount includes 16 months of pay in lieu of notice, that is $120,048 plus defendant contributions on account of pension at the rate of 6.25% ($7503)". The figure of $120,048 represents the minimum amount the government was prepared to assign to the category of pay in lieu of notice.

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 546, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: How much of the payment to Murdoch Carriere was regarded taxable income?

Answer:

The parties could not agree on the tax consequences of the settlement. That issue will be resolved between Murdoch Carriere and the Canada Revenue Agency, subject to any right of appeal to the courts.

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 547, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: How much of the payment to Murdoch Carriere was paid as taxable costs?

Answer:

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 548, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: In the settlement with Murdoch Carriere, which party asked for non-disclosure?

Answer:

The government's position throughout negotiations was that it would not agree to a non-disclosure provision and none is contained in the settlement with Mr. Carriere.

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 549, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: Was the Carriere settlement made ex gratia, or was it made with an admission of liability or guilt on behalf of the government?

Answer:

The Carriere settlement was paid on a legal opinion provided by Justice. The release contained the usual terms denying liability.

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: How much of the payment to Murdoch Carriere was pay in lieu of notice?

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 552, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

Answer:

$275,000 was the negotiated settlement. The cheque was sent to Mr. Carriere's solicitor on January 26, 2007.

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 553, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: On what date were the minutes and settlement releases for the Murdoch Carriere settlement signed?

Answer:

"Short form minutes of settlement and indemnification agreement and release" were signed on January 9, 2007, and were subject to the drafting of a final release signed by Mr. Carriere and dated February 9, 2007. Subsequent to January 9th, there were telephone conversations and correspondence exchanged between the lawyers about the tax issue. That delayed delivery of the final documents.

Mr. Morgan asked the Government the following Question No. 554, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister Responsible for the Public Service Commission: On what date were the funds sent to Mr. Carriere's lawyer?
