STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

(Unparliamentary Language during 75 Minute Debate)

Last Thursday, two points of order were raised during the Seventy-five Minute debate concerning the language used. I thank both the Member for Saskatoon Southeast (Mr. Morgan) and the Government House Leader (Mr. Hagel) for their interventions. At the time, the Acting Speaker (Mr. Prebble) committed to reviewing both the written and video record and to bring back a ruling at the earliest opportunity. I have discussed the events of last week with the Acting Speaker and now wish to rule on the points of order.

Much of the language and conduct of many Members on both sides during last Thursday's debate on the Murdoch Carriere case was unacceptable. The written Hansard is replete with instances on both sides of language that was unnecessarily personal or offensive, either towards an individual or towards a recognized group. Once again I direct Members to Marleau and Monpetit, where it is stated on page 525 that:

The proceedings of the House are based on a long-standing tradition of respect for the integrity of all Members. Thus, the use of offensive, provocative or threatening language in the House is strictly forbidden. Personal attacks, insults and obscene language or words are not in order.

Numerous rulings by Speakers of this Assembly can be cited in support of this authority. I draw Members' attention to just one. The ruling of May 12, 2000 addressed a similar circumstance where the language and decorum in the Assembly diminished considerably during a debate on a private Member's motion. At the time, my predecessor reflected that "it should be our mutual goal to achieve hard-hitting, politically effective criticism of policies, positions and actions without resorting to rude, intemperate and simplistic attacks on the integrity and motives of others."

I recognize that achieving this goal becomes more challenging when the matter under debate is an emotional one, which involves passionately held beliefs and values. Nevertheless, it is possible. The remarks made by the Member for Regina Dewdney (Mr. Yates) illustrates how one can effectively and forcefully refute the positions proposed by the other side while avoiding any personal aspersions on the integrity of other Members.

I do find that the remarks made by the Member for Humboldt (Ms. Harpauer) at the conclusion of her speech are unparliamentary. Regardless of whether they were captured by the Hansard recorders, the language used was clearly audible in the Chamber and on the video record. They constitute a personal attack on another Member and caused considerable disorder in the Chamber. Accordingly at the end of my statement, I will call upon the Member to withdraw the remarks she directed at the Member for Regina Walsh Acres.

A further concern that I wish to address is the rising level of noise in this Chamber, particularly during divisive debates and proceedings. In my view, the debate last Thursday was characterized by an inordinate amount of heckles and interventions by Members who were not recognized to speak. The volume of noise reached an unacceptable level when it prevented both the Acting Speaker and Members on both sides of the House to hear the words spoken in the debate. When the presiding officer must consult with the written record before a matter can be addressed, it illustrates the difficulty caused by excessive noise. It also prevents the Assembly from dealing promptly with questionable language or possible Rule infractions. In the future, I strongly encourage Members to curb the volume of their interventions to a level which does not impede the proceedings.

In regards to the point of order raised by the Member for Saskatoon Southeast, I reviewed the Hansard and audio tape and they do not record the comments alleged to have been made by the Minister of Finance. Accordingly I am unable to rule on this matter.

I wish to conclude by cautioning all Members to be temperate in their remarks, both while recognized to speak and while speaking from their seat. Many of these unofficial comments or heckles are intentionally provocative and inflammatory. The course of last Thursday's debate is illustrative of how such remarks are unhelpful. The fact that Hansard may not be able to attribute them to a particular Member does not make them acceptable language.

Thereupon, Ms. Harpauer withdrew her remarks.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Mr. D'Autremont asked the Government the following Question No. 1038, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Liquor and Gaming Authority: What percentage of the general population do lottery retailers represent?

Answer:

The people selling lottery tickets represent between 0.8% and 1.25% of the general population.

Mr. D'Autremont asked the Government the following Question No. 1039, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Liquor and Gaming Authority: What percentage of lottery players do lottery retailers represent?

Answer:

The participation rate for people selling lottery tickets is estimated to be between 2.85% and 5.13%.

Mr. D'Autremont asked the Government the following Question No. 1040, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Liquor and Gaming Authority: What percentage of lottery winners do lottery retailers represent?

Answer:

During the past three years, 13 of the 275 prizes over $10,000 or more claimed by Saskatchewan players were claimed by people who sell lottery tickets. This represents 4.73% of the claims made and is within the expected range.

These 13 wins came from across the province and there were no repeat winners. The 13 winners presented their tickets for prize claims and there were no irregularities on their tickets such as a name change or a cross out. They answered every question asked of them and their responses created no concerns. There were no other consumer claims on any of these prizes. There was no evidence of wrongdoing by any of these 13 individuals and their prizes were paid.

Mr. D'Autremont asked the Government the following Question No. 1041, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Liquor and Gaming Authority: What is the winning percentage "range" for non-lottery retailers?

Answer:

The odds of winning vary from game to game. The odds are significantly affected by the number of tickets bought by a purchaser. The odds of a Saskatchewan player winning a large prize depend on Saskatchewan's share of national ticket sales. The amount also depends on the amount of the jackpot. During the past three years, 262 of 275 prizes of $10,000 or more were claimed by Saskatchewan players who do not sell lottery tickets. This represents 95.27% of the claims made and is within the expected range.

Correction to answer to Question No. 866

Mr. Toth asked the Government the following Question No. 866, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. McCall:

To the Minister of Corrections and Public Safety: Of the harassment complaints filed in the 2006/07 fiscal year, how many were verified?
