Mr. Yates asked the Government the following Question No. 119, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Hickie:

To the Minister of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing: On October 29, 2008, the Minister made the following statement in the Assembly: "as minister, I identified the policy that I felt needed to be followed - namely, inform the public immediately when an offender is unlawfully at large. The ministry has responsibility for implementing the policy. This includes communicating the policy and developing the appropriate procedures for use throughout the system." What "appropriate procedures" were developed?

Answer:

On August 26, 2008 the Deputy Minister advised executive management members that effective immediately all media outlets, the Deputy Minister, the Chief of Staff to the Minister and the Minister are to be made aware of an escape regardless of character as soon as possible. Procedures around public notification were developed and communicated on August 26, 2008. Those August 26, 2008 procedures were formalized via a Memorandum by the Acting Deputy Minister on November 14, 2008.

Mr. Yates asked the Government the following Question No. 120, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Hickie:

To the Minister of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing: On October 29, 2008, the Minister made the following statement in the Assembly: "as minister, I identified the policy that I felt needed to be followed - namely, inform the public immediately when an offender is unlawfully at large. The ministry has responsibility for implementing the policy. This includes communicating the policy and developing the appropriate procedures for use throughout the system." (1) When was this policy communicated to front line staff? (2) How was this policy communicated to front line staff?

Answer:

- (1) A policy has been in effect since 1996, for front line staff to report serious incidents to senior management. The recent change to the policy has been that senior management ensure that all media outlets, the Deputy Minister, the Chief of Staff to the Minister and the Minister are aware of escapes and offenders that are unlawfully at large from secure adult correctional facilities as soon as possible.
- (2) The 1996 policy has been communicated to front line staff through the regular orientation and training received by all staff at correctional facilities.

Mr. Yates asked the Government the following Question No. 121, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Hickie:

To the Minister of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing: On October 29, 2008, the Minister made the following statement in the Assembly: “as minister, I identified the policy that I felt needed to be followed - namely, inform the public immediately when an offender is unlawfully at large. The ministry has responsibility for implementing the policy. This includes communicating the policy and developing the appropriate procedures for use throughout the system.” (1) When was this policy communicated to the Deputy Minister? (2) How was this policy communicated to the Deputy Minister - by email or by some other method?

Answer:

- (1) August 26, 2008.
- (2) The Deputy Minister was involved in developing the new policy during the course of several meetings regarding this matter.

Mr. Yates asked the Government the following Question No. 122, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Hickie:

To the Minister of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing: On October 29, 2008, the Minister made the following statement in the Assembly: “as minister, I identified the policy that I felt needed to be followed - namely, inform the public immediately when an offender is unlawfully at large. The ministry has responsibility for implementing the policy. This includes communicating the policy and developing the appropriate procedures for use throughout the system.” When was this policy enacted?

Answer:

The policy was enacted on August 26, 2008.

Mr. Yates asked the Government the following Question No. 123, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Hickie:

To the Minister of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing: On October 29, 2008, the Minister made the following statement in the Assembly: “as minister, I identified the policy that I felt needed to be followed - namely, inform the public immediately when an offender is unlawfully at large. The ministry has responsibility for implementing the policy. This includes communicating the policy and developing the appropriate procedures for use throughout the system.” (1) How were the “appropriate procedures” communicated to staff (including the Deputy Minister)? (2) When did this communication take place?

Answer:

- (1) To be immediately responsive, procedures were discussed by senior ministry officials and communicated verbally and through an email on August 26, 2008.
- (2) Same as above.

Mr. Yates asked the Government the following Question No. 124, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Hickie:

To the Minister of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing: (1) Have there been any changes to the policy manual in the Ministry of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing since November 7, 2007? (2) If so, what were those changes?

Answer:

- (1) The Ministry of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing has a number of policy manuals specific to each area of the Ministry. Numerous changes have been made to policies within each of the manuals since November 7, 2007.
- (2) Changes to the policies within each of the manuals in the Ministry of Corrections, Public Safety and Policing reflect operational needs.
