THE PASSING OF A FORMER OFFICER OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

On Orders of the Day, the Speaker advised the Assembly of the passing of a former Officer of the Assembly: Mr. Ernest Boychuk, who served as the first Ombudsman for the Province of Saskatchewan from 1973 until 1976.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER (Unparliamentary Language)

On Thursday March 17, 2011, the Government Whip (Mr. Weekes) raised a point of order about comments made by the Member from Regina Coronation Park (Mr. Trew) during the 75-minute Private Members' Day debate. The Government Whip claims that the Member from Regina Coronation Park accused government members of purposely including a lie in a motion. After making an initial response to the point of order I did commit to carefully review the record. I have done this and I am now prepared to rule on this matter.

The debate in question can be found on page 6776 of Hansard. The Member from Regina Coronation Park stated,

I'm wondering how it is that the Sask Party Government House Leader can present such a complete fabrication that cannot be substantiated as fact, but how is it that I can't call that a lie or a mistruth? How does that work? How is it that something can be fabricated by the Sask Party government, a complete fabrication, and yet I can't call it a mistruth or a lie?

Further during the debate, the Member from Regina Coronation Park indicates that the Government House Leader (Mr. D'Autremont) "tries to put falsehoods into our mouths and tries to misrepresent."

On May 10, 2004, Speaker Kowlalsky ruled that it is not a legitimate function for members in debate to question directly or indirectly the integrity or motives of members individually or collectively. Members will find many rulings to this effect over the years. Beauchesne's Parliamentary Rules & Forms, 6th Edition at paragraph 487(2) states, "[w]ords may not be used hypothetically or conditionally, if they are plainly intended to convey a direct imputation." In this vein, Speaker Osika ruled on May 12, 2000, that it is out of order to use the guise of a literary device to allege something about another member that otherwise would be unparliamentary.

Upon a careful review of the Hansard, I find that the Member for Regina Coronation Park used the device of a hypothetical question to disguise an allegation that another member had tried to deliberately mislead the Assembly. While it is not unparliamentary to criticize statements made by members as being contrary to the facts, the integrity or motives of members, whether individually or collectively, should not be questioned directly or indirectly. For these reasons I find the comments made by the Member from Regina Coronation Park are out of order. I call on the Member to withdraw the remarks.

Thereupon, Mr. Trew withdrew his remarks.
