VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

PRAYERS

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER Ruling on a Point of Order (Unparliamentary Language)

On Thursday, March 14, 2024, the Deputy Opposition House Leader (Ms. Conway) rose on a point of order alleging that the member for Lloydminster (Ms. Young) said in her member's statement, "... it's no wonder no one trusts the NDP." I committed to reviewing the record and, in doing so, found many instances of unparliamentary language by members on both sides of the House. In fact, in recent weeks there have been several instances of members on both sides calling into question other members' integrity and trustworthiness, contributing to an overall decline in decorum. Members are well aware that it is unparliamentary to impugn the honesty and integrity of other members. Accordingly, I would caution that member and all members to be mindful of the words they use in this Chamber, particularly in reference to one another.
