4. The Chair made the following statement:

Thank you, Mr. Iwanchuk. In fact Mr. Iwanchuk is correct that comments should be made to the Chair. When members are recognized, they can ask their questions and comments to the Chair. Committee members are not witnesses. It’s certainly appropriate for a committee member to make a statement on the issue that is before the committee, but it is not appropriate for . . . This is not the 75-minute debate, question and answer period, and so I would ask committee members to observe the appropriate decorum and rules of debate.

5. The committee recessed from 3:29 p.m. until 3:40 p.m.

6. The Chair made the following statement:

I would just remind the member that it is not appropriate to call someone a liar. The member may express that it is his belief that the third party was not presenting the facts as the member understood. But I would just caution all members just to be mindful of that when they are making their comments.
