Impaired Driving, Cellphone Use while Driving and Driving without Due Care Convictions

The following tables present data on the number of convictions for impaired driving, cell phone use, and driving without due care and attention. The data was extracted from the convictions table from SGI's database. The table for impaired driving convictions includes data from the last five years. The cellphone use convictions table includes data since 2010, as that is when cellphone convictions started to be tracked independently. The driving without due care and attention convictions table also includes data since 2010.
